

Chapter 6 Initial Thoughts

Who did you list?

What are the obstacles to a consultative approach?

Chapter 6

A question of scale?

What is a 'blueprint' approach?

Is participation in poverty alleviation a legitimate end?

Which of the two benefits of participation is more compelling to you – the exercise of dominion, or the communication of value? Are there pitfalls related to these?

Should participation in poverty relief planning and execution be limited to those who profess Christ?

Refer to the continuum on page 148.

What are some areas of ministry to the needy that cannot be "Community Initiatives"

How would inappropriate goals or emphases be manifested in a 'compliance' model?

How would inappropriate goals or emphases be manifested in a 'Community Initiative' model?

How do we gain input from impoverished peoples? What are some pitfalls?

What is the bottom line in poverty alleviation?

Chapter 6 Questions for Reflection – Next week!